The OBA finished our weekend up on Sunday at Linn lanes in Lebanon. Thank you to Gary and the staff for the hospitality.

Thank you to Storm Products for your continued partnership.

Thank you to Aaron Heintzman of Players Edge Pro Shop and Tony J Godinho of Precision Performance Pro Shop, both of these gentlemen added $250 each to the prize fund.

We started the day with 56 bowlers competing on Kegel Bourbon Street. The scoring pace was higher than our first two events and we saw the leaders change positions and when qualifying was over with, it was Johnny Leggett that led qualifying at 1392. Ashton Yamasaki was 2nd with 1383 and 3rd high qualifier was Nick Losli and Kwon Dohoon with 1359. Making the cut into the eliminator in 16th position was Aaron Heintzman with 1257.

we paid 18 spots with 17th and 18th being a tie at 1246 between Mac Kaurin and Tony J Godinho. we paid a high senior out of the money check and that went to Tim Whiteis at 1242.

We had 8 women compete and we paid high woman out of the money and that went to Laura Cowling at 1207 with a really nice 269 last game.

In our first round of the eliminator, we cut the field from 16 to 8 after two games with total pins carry over. Then we bowled another 2 games cutting from 8 to 4. This left us with Ashton Yamasaki, Elizabeth N Berry Scruggs, Jake Kjemsen and Tanner Acosta. During this round, the home town crowd was rooting even louder for Tanner, and with a game to go in this round, Ashton had 110 pin lead over 2nd, all but guaranteeing him a spot in the finals, however the other 3 were all within 9 pins. The last game had some excitement, however some untimely non carry shots eliminated Tanner. Berry stepped up in the 10th frame and did what he needed to do to close Jake out by 11 pins.

This set up a finals between Berry and Ashton, both seeking their first title with Ashton having a 53 pin lead over Berry. Berry came out firing the first game and bowled a very solid 245, which without a couple bad breaks would have been 260+. Ashton bowled a 201 game which left Ashton with a 9 pin lead with one game to go. Ashton kept his composure though and bowled a very solid 236 game while Berry had a couple shots get away and bowled 194 which secured Ashton a 51 pin victory.

After a bunch of 2nds and other high finishes, we are proud to call Ashton an OBA champion.

Thank you to everyone that came out and bowled, our next event will be at Firs Bowl in Eugene 11/12
